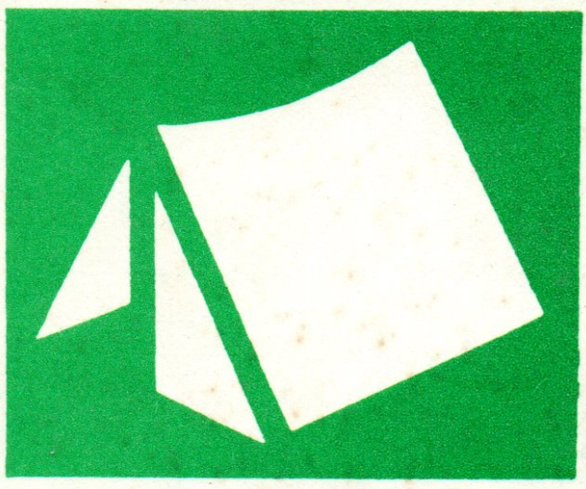
ROYAL NATIONAL PARK BUSH CAMPING PERMIT

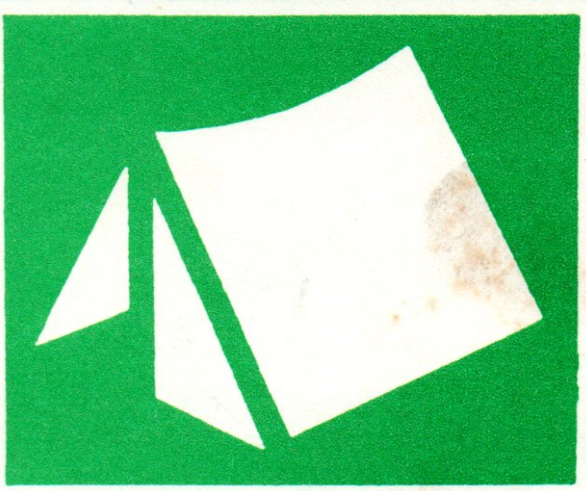


Expires: 30th September 1991
(Not Valid for Bonnie Vale Camping area)

NATIONAL PARKS & WILDLIFE SERVICE N S W

PERMIT NO.
3189

ROYAL NATIONAL PARK BUSH CAMPING PERMIT



Expires: 30th September 1991
(Not Valid for Bonnie Vale Camping area)

NATIONAL PARKS & WILDLIFE SERVICE N S W

PERMIT NO.
3190

PERMITS ARE VALID FOR THE YEAR INDICATED ONLY—EVERY CAMPER MUST SIGN AND CARRY HIS OR HER OWN PERMIT.

Name: .....

Address: .....

.....

Signature: .....

Telephone No. .....

I RECOGNISE BY MY SIGNATURE ON THIS PERMIT THAT CAMPING IN ROYAL NATIONAL PARK IS A PRIVILEGE AND CAMPERS ARE SUBJECT TO ALL PARK BY-LAWS AND A NUMBER OF OTHER CONDITIONS.

- Wood fires are not permitted for any purpose. Only gas or fuel stoves may be used for cooking.
- Do not camp within one kilometre of any road, picnic area or day use area.
- Don't cause an unnecessary costly search. Tell your family exactly where you are going and when you will return—then keep to your plan—keep your party together.
- Cats and dogs strictly prohibited.
- Do not break down or trample the vegetation.
- Do not dig drainage trenches.
- Do not carry axes, machetes, bushsaws, hatchets and sheath knives.
- All tins, bottles, and other rubbish must be removed from the Park or to a garbage container.
- Be careful with stoves, especially during the bushfire danger period (October-March). Never leave your stove unattended.
- Keep you campsite clean and tidy.
- Do not disturb wildlife.
- No toilet facilities.

Director,
National Parks & Wildlife Service.

PERMITS ARE VALID FOR THE YEAR INDICATED ONLY—EVERY CAMPER MUST SIGN AND CARRY HIS OR HER OWN PERMIT.

Name: .....

Address: .....

.....

Signature: .....

Telephone No. .....

I RECOGNISE BY MY SIGNATURE ON THIS PERMIT THAT CAMPING IN ROYAL NATIONAL PARK IS A PRIVILEGE AND CAMPERS ARE SUBJECT TO ALL PARK BY-LAWS AND A NUMBER OF OTHER CONDITIONS.

- Wood fires are not permitted for any purpose. Only gas or fuel stoves may be used for cooking.
- Do not camp within one kilometre of any road, picnic area or day use area.
- Don't cause an unnecessary costly search. Tell your family exactly where you are going and when you will return—then keep to your plan—keep your party together.
- Cats and dogs strictly prohibited.
- Do not break down or trample the vegetation.
- Do not dig drainage trenches.
- Do not carry axes, machetes, bushsaws, hatchets and sheath knives.
- All tins, bottles, and other rubbish must be removed from the Park or to a garbage container.
- Be careful with stoves, especially during the bushfire danger period (October-March). Never leave your stove unattended.
- Keep you campsite clean and tidy.
- Do not disturb wildlife.
- No toilet facilities.

Director,
National Parks & Wildlife Service.